TREASURER'S REPORT Dispensed with in Tim's absence

CORRESPONDENCE None

OLD BUSINESS

BUSINESS ADVISORY No report, however members present had a discussion regarding DCC offering a specific ETHICS course for the general public or for a specific company. Ethics is included in at least one of the current business courses. Pat stated he didn't believe a "just" ethics course would be a possibility at this time.

NEWSLETTER Next deadline is first week in December, depending on what date is set for the open house.

STEVE BECK SEMINAR

Committee: Sandi McGovern, Cindy Berg, Bill Wade, Reed Reyman, Steve Olson

There were 99 attendees. The marketing for this seminar was excellent and got results. Having it at the new auditorium at DCC was very good PR for the College. The "nothing but bottled water in the auditorium" caused a slight problem for a few. Tim will have a financial report on the seminar next meeting.

Should we do Part II? Does the second portion deal with more practical, hand-on aspects of approaches for specific situations? Request that Lonnie get some feedback from Lewistown on how their Part II went and was received. Lonnie will write to Janis Duffy and see what she can find out.

Sandi said that Glendive Medical Center might be able to use Steve Beck for National Hospital Week presentations. That happens the second week in May. More discussion on this topic next meeting.

EMPLOYERS IN SCHOOL Nick and Bill are set for October 18th, Pat is scheduled for October 12th, and Peg will be during the last week of October. Next meeting will get feedback from the presenters on how this went.

OPEN HOUSE The date is still being debated. Suggested we find out when Stockman is doing theirs {December 8th}, and maybe schedule on that day. Suggested that we emphasize promotion of the assistance we can provide on-line during the Open House.

NEW BUSINESS

MEMBERSHIP Reed Raymond has decided to give up his position on the JSEC, and he suggested Lee Boyles from GMC as an excellent replacement! With Curt and now Reed leaving our group, the Committee is down to 7 members, so we really need to concentrate on recruitment. Other possibilities: Valerie Limesand--Boys and Girls Club, Natali Adorni or Jaci Wurm (Pete Bruno is now at the Parent Resource Center and he'd be a good choice as well!) from AWARE, SOMEone from BNSF, Kim from the Chamber (Pat will call her), one of the County Commissioners (after the election).

ADJOURN 1:00

NEXT MEETING November 14, 2006 (November 7th is Election Day!)
Dawson County High School Board Room
We can dine in the cafeteria! LC will call for head count on Monday, November 13
